Countryside Estate with Cottage and Stunning views

Uniquely situated on a hilltop in the Tunes countryside, you will find this spectacular estate with stunning panoramic views to the ocean and the surrounding country side. An olive tree-lined driveway welcomes you as you arrive to the estate. The 4 bedroom villa is full of charm and character. The open plan living and dining area has a cosy fire place and large windows to the terrace with stunning sea and country views. The fully equipped kitchen with traditional features leads straight onto the dining area and the large covered terrace. In the beautiful mature garden you will find a family-sized swimming pool and plenty of areas for relaxing or entertaining. Within the estate there is also a cosy cottage with a fireplace. This property would make a lovely full time home but also has good rental potential for those who want a more tranquil setting with stunning views. There is also the possibility to develop a tourism project.
